3 Prompt Advantage

Here at PROMPT we don't just see interior spaces when it comes to your office design. We look at the bigger picture.

Specifically We look at Utilization of space:

How you can make the best use of space based on the current and future needs of your organization.

Profitability:

We look at how the work place can be impacted by interior design to improve effectiveness, efficiency and profitability.

Once these two aspects have been considered, the space is then considered. to show you the depth of our processes and how we ensure interior design is considered in a wider context, the following processes are followed.

Prompt Advantage

TYPE OF CONTRACT

We consider design-build VS separate contracts, pricing options and what will work best on your particular project.

We put these options to you and work in partnership to select the best option for your business.

WE TAKE FULL RESPONSIBILITY

You can leave the heaving lifting to us! We take care of project management and run your entire project. This is peace of mind as we will do whatever it takes to keep your project on track.

We put these options to you and work in partnership to select the best option for your business.

Don't want full project management? No problems! We can work in whatever capacity you require.

ON TIME AND ON BUDGET

We deliver your project on time and on budget, every time. This is achieved through:

project management: We have strong project management skills in interior design.

knowledge of the industry: Our staff are experts the industry and know the local market. They know what it takes to deliver a project on time and on budget.

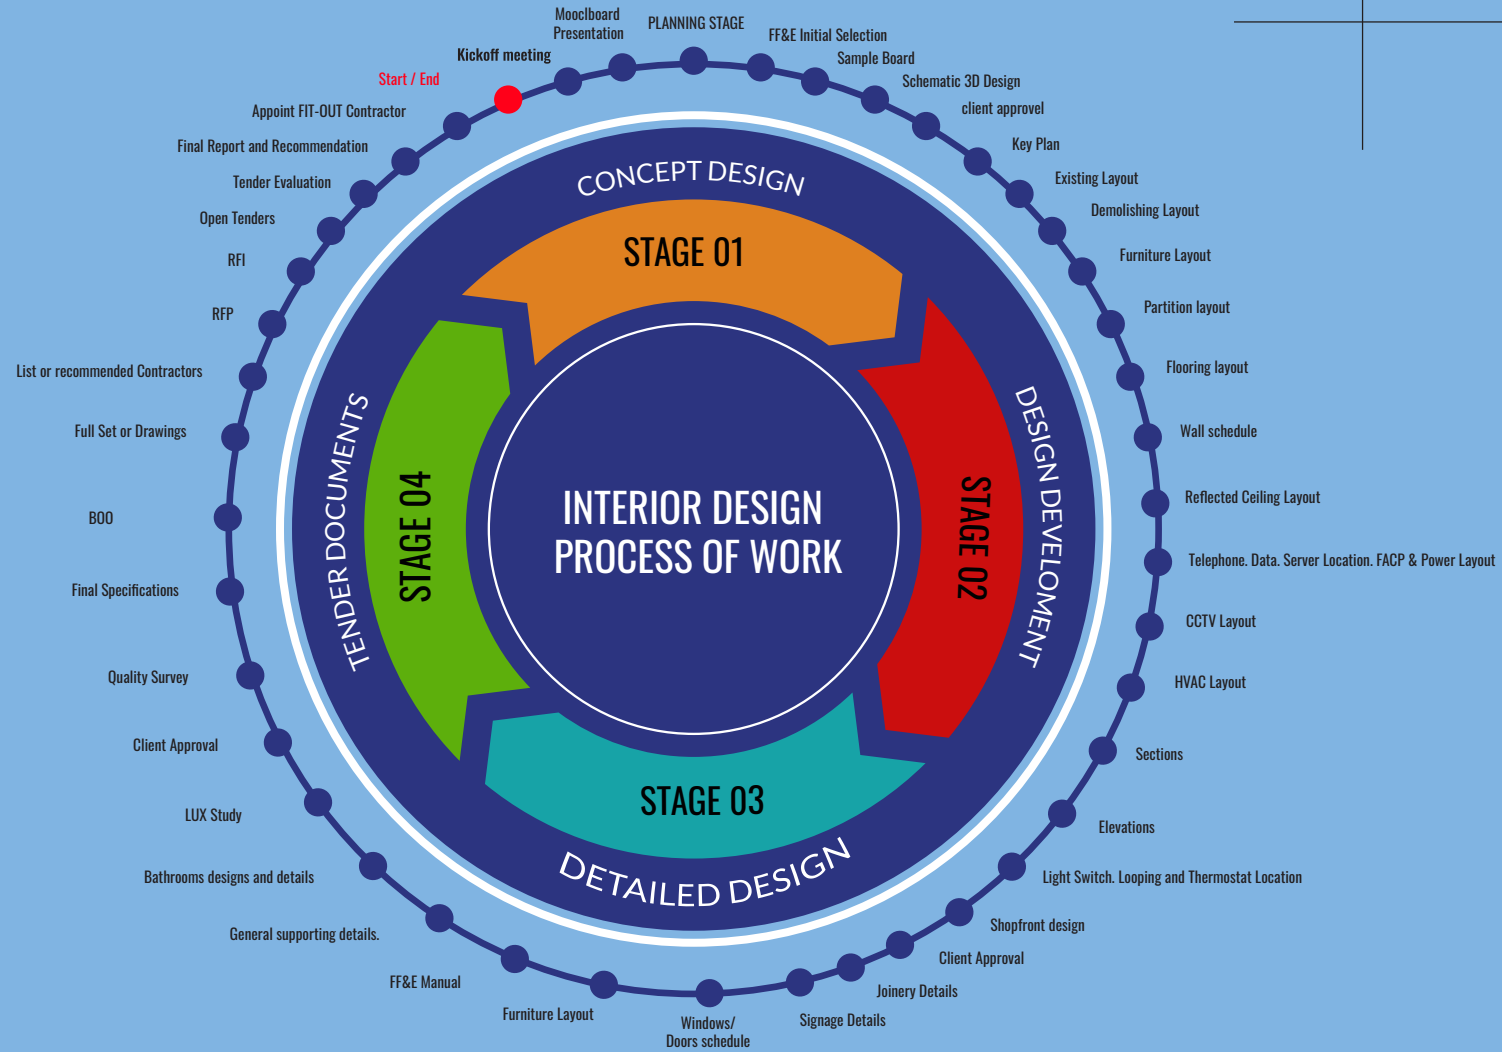

Commitment to our customers: We do whatever it takes to deliver projects for our customers accurate costing: We are experts in costing which helps get the project off on the right foot.

project planning: Our company uses detailed project plans that help to track critical components of projects to ensure they stay on track.

Project process

CONCEPT DESIGN

An interior design concept is the central theme that all the design elements are focused upon. It exists as an idea first and is brought to reality through careful planning. At its best, an interior design concept is a visual theme that evokes a specific mood by strategically using color, space, and style.

DESIGN DEVELOPMENT

A Design Development is the design and engineering work process that is based on FEED or Basic Engineering information to develop the Detailed Design and Engineering document for the procurement, construction, operation, and maintenance of a project.

DETAILED DESIGN

Detailed design is the phase where the design is refined and plans, specifications and estimates are created. Detailed design will include outputs such as 2D and 3D models, P & ID's, cost build up estimates, procurement plans etc. This phase is where the full cost of the project is identified.

TENDER DOCUMENTS

A tender is nothing but an invitation to offer wherein the government, by way of a tender, invites offer from private entities in the form of a bid to supply goods and services to the government

Project process

PLANNING STAGE

We believe in doing things right the first time around Therefore more important it is to understand your needs, collect usable data that helps in space planning. Considering soaring rents and paucity of office space a generation of a detailed brief assumes great importance.

A usual practise at Prompt is to generate this brief using the following methodology, this help align employees needs with the organizational goals

WORKSHOP

OBSERVATIONS.

WORKSHOP

Gather key decision makers; facilitate energetic sessions using tools and props to merge end-users' needs, concerns and expectation with corporate objectives, such as communication branding, staff retention etc. To overcome the problem of numbers, we will help cell leaders, across the departments; conduct these workshops with their work groups. Next step would be to conduct workshops with these cell leaders. In this way concerns of all will be addressed systematically This will take 2 sessions.

INTERVIEW

Focus on decision makers or representatives of specific workgroups, using template forms, identify team adjacencies and solidify populations and access,ergonomic, privacy and flexibility requirements

OBSERVATION

Identify key workplace productivity metrics through discrete observation of people interactions and work-flow and understand environmental elements which retard or grow workgroup productivity and impact on facility.

How we can help?

Our solutions have won countless awards and are internationally recognised for their innovation and smart use of space.

Our staff are also internationally recognised for their commercial interior design, strategic facility planning and project management.

More than just ensuring a project runs on time and on schedule, and exceeds client expectations, our staff please. We strive to create and implement interior spaces and designs that are economic, functional and of course aesthetically.

This is what stands us out from the crowd, and has clients coming back for more!

WHY THIS BENEFITS YOU

Your interior design says a lot about your business. A unique space sets your business apart and shows that you are a leader in your field. More than this, the interior of your building can improve productivity, and efficiency. When done right, it can even reduce operating costs. On top of this your interior space can help with communication and networking.

As well as providing unique spaces, we also look at how technologies can be integrated into design.

When you use our services we even look at how your company will look in the future. We allow flexibility in design so that you can easily deal with restructures or rapid business expansions.

With all of these benefits, it's easy to see why we have a lot of happy customers.

UNIQUE SPACES ALSO BENEFIT STAFF

Your staff are often the ones that will benefit the most from interior design. When spaces are designed with their needs in mind, and sunlight and fresh air as well as noise reductions are considered, it helps to create a happy and productive company.

PROMPT INTERIORS will work with the decision makers of companies to ensure that they understand the business needs, goals and objectives. Only when they have ascertained this, do they look at the interior design and see how spaces can help achieve the company objectives.

4 How we can help?

COMMITMENT TO DESIGN EXCELLENCE

Our business is committed to design excellence However, design isn't considered in isolation.

We consider budgets, timeframe and business requirements and objectives.

The end result is the best design based on your business and budget.

A SUCCESSFUL PARTNERSHIP

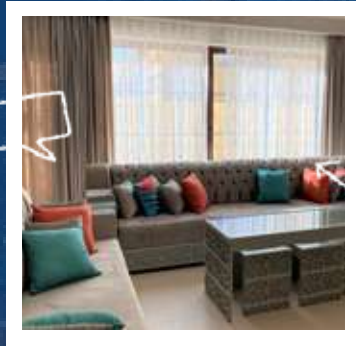

PROMPT believe that to be successful we need to work in partnership with our clients. This isn't just attending a few meetings, it is a full hands on approve where were seek to understand your requirements.

If this type of partnership sounds good to you, then contact us today. One of our experts in interior design will be more than happy to take your call.

APARTMENTS & VILLAS

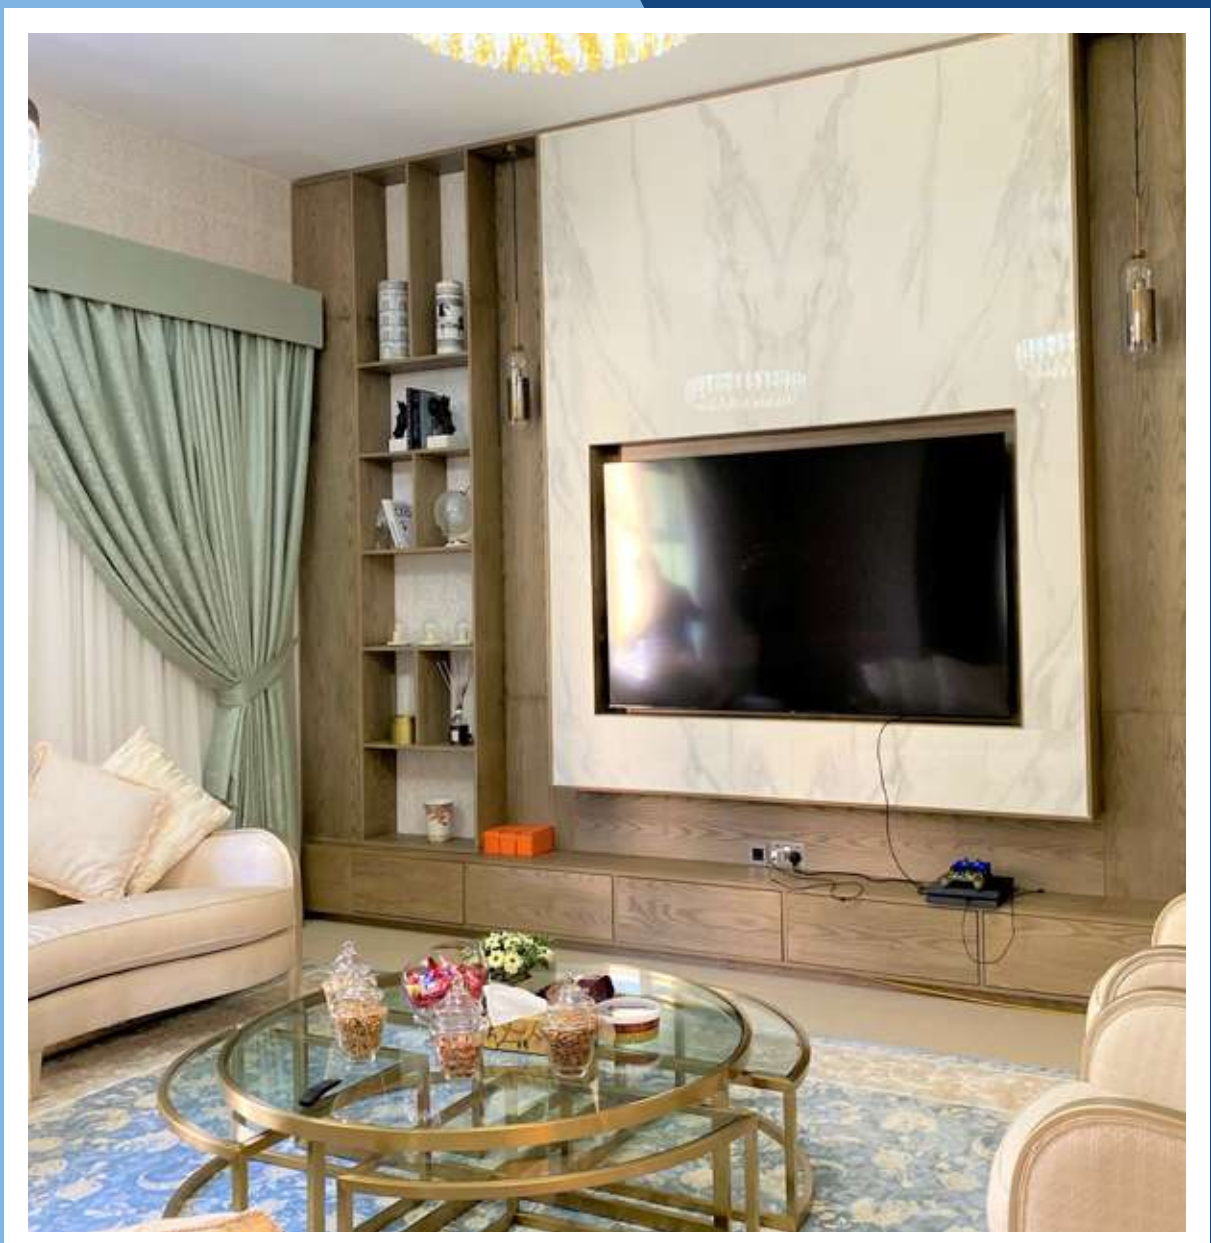

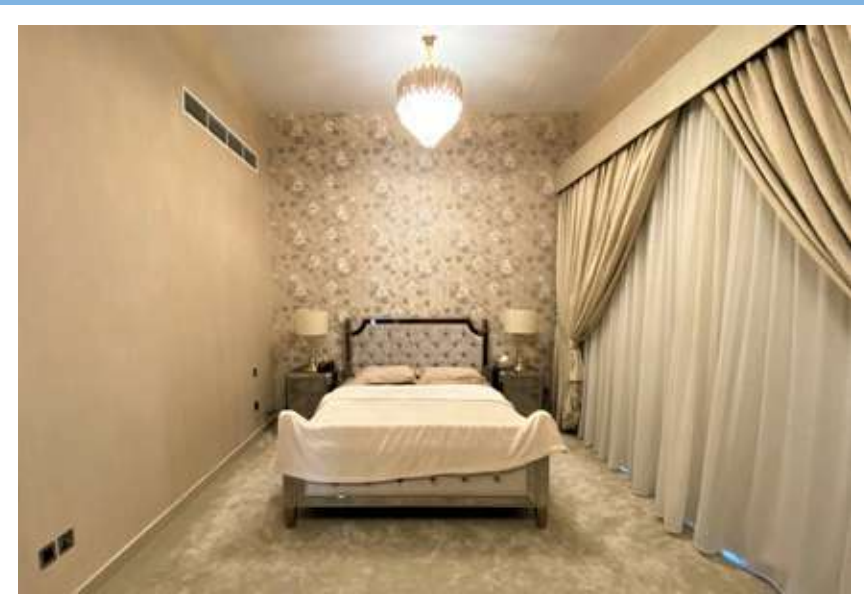

It is the setting for your future memories and so we do it with the best care and commitment. It's our greatest pleasure to give life to your concepts and ideas regarding a perfect interior

RESTAURANTS | COFFEE SHOPS

Good interior design means marketable interior design. You can use your interior design for marketing your restaurant among your target customers. If there is something unique about your interiors, make it public. People love to think that they are a part of something unique and would flock to your restaurant
